

ROFI LORICA

Description

The new ROFI splinter- and bullet proof vest, Lorica, is designed for Norwegian Peoples Aid for multi purpose use. The vest can be used for deminig, BAC, EOD clearance as well as a bullet proof vest. The Lorica Vest is designed for maximum comfort and has a waist belt for better weight distribution. Protection level in accordance with NIJ 0101.03 as standard.

The ROFI Lorica vest is suitable to both male and female users. The vest model is adjustable at the shoulders and waist for best possible comfort.

- Protecting front, back, neck, shoulder and groin
- Adjustable
- High comfort with optimal weight distribution
- Possible upgrade of protection level by insert of ceramic plates

ROFI Lorica ballistic vests provides maximum protection and comfort, fitted with both front and back neck collar, and pelvic protector. The vest is equipped with pockets for upgrading ceramic inserts. Individual adjustments are possible at shoulder and waist for increased comfort to the user.

Key features:

- Adjustable to size
- High comfort level
- Protection level of choice
- Large protection areas
- With pockets in front and back, for ceramic inserts